

Department of Mathematics, POSTECH Visitors' Guide

Welcome!

The undergraduate and graduate program at the POSTECH Math Department emphasizes the importance of rigorous mathematical reasoning and academically sound curriculum, and growingly reflects the role of mathematics in various aspects of modern society. We are currently making intensive efforts to improve its level of research and teaching so that it becomes comparable to that of the world's top 20 universities within the next 10 to 15 years.

Enjoy your stays at POSTECH!
