

The Fourier expansions of modular forms with their divisors

by Dohoon Choi (Korea Aerospace University)

A modular form can be determined by the followings: 1. Fourier expansion of a modular form at infinity, 2. q -product expansion of a modular form at infinity, 3. the divisor of a modular form. In this talk, we study the connections between them.